VIP receives Australian TGA approval

VIP Gloves Limited (VIP or the Company) has further expanded its global regulatory footprint for marketing and sales of its nitrile gloves, with the Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) of Australia registering VIP's nitrile examination/ treatment gloves as a Class 1 Medical Device and approving commencement of sales of the product in Australia.

The receipt of the TGA accreditation follows similar regulatory accreditation in the USA (FDA)[1] and European Union (CE Mark)[2] during 2021.

Commenting on the receipt of TGA accreditation, VIP Gloves Chairman Dr Joe Wong said;

"VIP Gloves is pleased to have secured TGA accreditation for its nitrile gloves, ensuring we now have accreditation covering the bulk of the global market."

"We have been advancing distribution agreements for the Australian market in recent months and with TGA accreditation now received these can be finalised enabling sales to commence in the coming months.

"VIP Gloves continues to expand its international sales footprint to become a global glove supplier, providing a platform to launch the Company's house brands as capacity expands in the coming months when the additional two production lines come online."

This announcement has been approved by the Board of VIP Gloves Limited.
